Motion Filed in Pearl Harbor Case.

WILLING TO PAY $75,000 FOR LAND

United States Gives Reasons for New Trial in Honolulu Plantation Company Case.

The motion for a new trial in the case of the United States vs. the Honolulu Plantation Company, was filed in Federal Court yesterday. The motion is to be presented to Judge Estee Wednesday, March 26th.

The following are the grounds given in the motion as reasons why a new trial should be granted:

1. Insufficiency of evidence to justify the said verdict.

2. That said verdict is contrary to and against the law and the evidence.

3. That said verdict is not sustained or justified by either the law or the evidence or the weight of the evidence herein.

4. That said verdict is excessive, in this, that it attempts to award excessive, unreasonable and inconsistent compensation or damages herein.

5. That said verdict is contrary to and against the charge of the court herein.

6. Errors in law occurred during the trial and excepted to by said plaintiff and petitioner.

In the assignment of errors it is stated that the evidence is wholly insufficient to justify the verdict, in that there is no evidence to support the finding that the market value of the leasehold interest is of the sum of $94,000, or any sum in excess of $75,000.

In support of this is attached an affidavit from Assistant District Attorney Dunne showing the judgment of the court after the first trial to have been $75,000 in full for all damages of every kind. For the same reason it is alleged that there was no evidence to justify the finding of the jury of damages in the amount of $8,523.

It is further alleged that the valuation of the jury was a mere speculative one, and that jury gave undue and excessive weight to the expert testimony introduced by said defendant.

The plaintiff alleges that the court erred in allowing the testimony relative to the mill upon the plantation, and in allowing some of the questions asked by defendant of the experts.

Errors in the refusal of the court to give certain instructions asked by defendant are also alleged by plaintiff, as reasons for a new trial.

In the affidavit by Mr. Dunne, accompanying the motion, he sets out the fact of the first trial, and the subsequent order of Judge Estee, January 25th, in granting a new trial, upon the refusal of the defendant to accept a cut to $75,000, the amount fixed by the court.

He says further that the evidence in the two cases was substantially the same; that but few additional witnesses were called, and upon the same pleadings and the same state of facts, the verdict should not have been above the sum of $75,000, the judgment in the first trial.

MAGOON WINS

ANOTHER CASE

Judge Robinson held court all day yesterday, hearing the case of Kuke-kakaula and Kul vs. J. A. Magoon and the trustees of the Bishop Estate.

Complainants alleged that they had borrowed $400 from Mr. Magoon, and afterwards repaid him half of that amount. Later they were unable to pay the remainder, and they gave him what they supposed was a new mortgage for the balance of $200, but which afterwards turned out to be a deed. The evidence showed, however, that the deed to the property, alleged to be worth $2,000, was given to Magoon upon condition that half the rental be paid to the plaintiffs, and that they be allowed to remain there for the remainder of their lives. The title to the property is not clear. Judge Robinson dismissed the complaint upon the motion of defendant, holding that the evidence was insufficient to establish the allegations in the complaint.

The plaintiffs are Hawaiians, over seventy years of age. The trial occupied the entire day.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES.

Objections were filed yesterday to the bill of exceptions in the Kahilina divorce case. Libellant alleges that no exceptions were taken at the hearing, and that the bill does not correctly state the facts.

The children of M. J. Borba, deceased, have waived claim to a share in the estate in favor of the widow, who receipts for the proceeds, $268.

Allen & Robinson have filed a lien upon the building of J. H. Fisher, on Fort street, between Beretania and Hotel streets, in the amount of $819.41.

Judge Humphreys yesterday licensed So Yong to practice law in the District courts of the Territory, and before Circuit judges on appeals.

The Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company filed a demurrer yesterday to the complaint of Sun Kwong Man Company, in which a temporary injunction was granted. Defendants allege that the bill is brought by persons not entitled to bring an equity suit; that the complaint is void for want of certainty as to the parties complaining, and that the plaintiff is not entitled in law to sue as a firm.

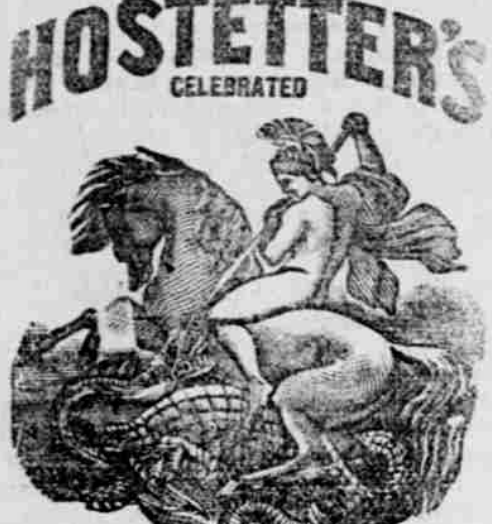

School Athletes at Loggerheads.

From the present outlook it would seem that there will be no more baseball this season between St. Louis College and the High School. The two teams are at loggerheads over certain points, and there does not seem any prospect of an understanding being arrived at.

St. Louis College challenged the High School to a game of baseball which resulted in a victory for the High School. After the game the High School boys asked St. Louis to play them a series of games for the championship. St. Louis agreed to this, provided that the game already played was not counted in the series. St. Louis further requested that Mr. Elston, the High School teacher, be left out of the team.

High School refused to drop Elston from their team, and told St. Louis that unless they played them on March 8, they would claim the championship. They also insisted on counting the decided game one of the series. They were willing, however, to allow St. Louis to have J. Williams, the Honolulu Athletic Club man, as an offset to Elston, playing on their team.

St. Louis did not want Williams, taking the stand that boys should play against boys, and rather than take what they considered the short end of the argument, have reluctantly refused to play further games with the High School.

Halpruner's Cures Catarrh

Dr. Halpruner's Wonderful Medicine is an all-luxury safe and sure cure for catarrh, cold in the head and all affections caused by inflammation of the membranes. If you will take it as directed, as conscientiously as you take your meals, you will get over your catarrh and its annoying, sickening unpleasantness.

All druggists should sell Halpruner's. If you find one that does not go to the next one—don't let any druggist impose upon you by selling something of his own preparation. If you want to be cured—demand the genuine.

I know positively that Dr. Halpruner's Wonderful Pain Remover is a medicine of exceptional merit, for my family has used it for many years. I would not make this statement without a positive, personal knowledge whereof I speak, for I do not believe in recommending medicines without merit. As a family remedy, good for catarrh, sore throat, cold, headaches, cuts, bruises, sprains, rheumatism, neuralgia, and, in fact, what all good medicines are good for, I strongly advise the use of Dr. Halpruner's wonderful medicine.
